

I urge the federal government to respect the right of New Jersey to protect its residents from harassment with the "Do Not Call List." We recognize commercials and advertising as a necessary but, not to the point of stalking. This popular law protects our right to privacy in the one place where we truly have an expectation of privacy-our homes. Please, do not weaken our right to defend ourselves!